Diversity Course Requirement

The Diversity Course Requirement at Green River Community College requires students to take a class focused on the study of one or more groups that have been historically marginalized on the basis of culture, race, ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation, class, disability, religion, age, immigration, and/or geopolitical power. Diversity-designated courses are approved by the Instructional Diversity Committee. The purpose of the requirement is to facilitate academic inquiry and analysis, allowing for a scholarly understanding of past and current differences, conflicts, and relations of power, thereby moving the discourse of diversity beyond mere tolerance, celebration, or appreciation.

A minimum of one course from the following list must be taken to satisfy the Diversity Requirement at Green River. In most cases, a course from the list below also satisfies other distribution areas, such as the English, Fine Arts, Humanities, or Social Science requirement for the AA degree.
