Identity and Statement of Educational Purpose
(To be signed in the presence of a Financial Aid Office staff member)

A student appearing in person at Green River Community College’s Financial Aid office must verify his or her identity by presenting a valid government-issued photo identification (ID). The ID can include a driver’s license, other state-issued ID, passport or other current photo identification.

The college will maintain a copy of the photo ID and note the date it was received and the name of the official at the institution authorized to accept the identification.

The student must sign the Statement of Education Purpose in the presence of an authorized college official.
