

GED Preparation Resources

Web sites:

www.studyguidezone.com – go to Primary/Secondary Test section and select GED Test

- free links for each subject
- each test has 10 questions with answers and explanations
- has a guide with comprehensive information for each test

www.testprepreview.com

- has free self assessment modules by subject, topic, and skill
- these have 20 questions with answers but no explanations
- has self improvement online dictionary
-

www.gedprepinfo.com

- free questions, answers, and their explanations
- practice test by subject
- 20 questions with detailed explanations and strategies

www.gedpractice.com

- free practice questions by topic within test type
- 22 topics for the 5 tests
- Explanations of answers and why others are incorrect

Books:

“Cracking the GED” by Princeton Review

- test strategies
- 2 full practice exams with answers

“McGraw-Hill’s GED: The Most Complete and Reliable Study Program for the GED Tests” by McGraw – Hill

- half length pretest for each subject
- 2 full length practice test for each subject
- complete answer keys with explanations
- test taking tips and strategies

“GED for Dummies” by Murray Shukyn and Dale Shuttleworth

- easy to read, humorous approach
- intended as a brush-up review rather than a complete study course