A Student who has signed a Housing Contract for the following academic term may be permitted to remain in Campus Corner Apartments after the Last Day of Occupancy at the sole discretion of the Manager.

Terms of Payment, Charges, and Refunds The total amount due for the Term of Occupancy (herein called the “Housing Fee”) is listed above. This amount is for one (1) bed space in a shared apartment. Use of Facilities When the Manager deems it necessary, the Manager will require students to move to other accommodations. When such circumstances occur, the Student agrees to complete the move within the time specified by Manager. The Manager may relocate Student for the following reasons:

a) to vacate or consolidate a room, apartment, or building

b) to provide necessary space to accommodate staffing needs
Termination of Occupancy by Manager; Enforcement of Housing Contract Subject to all notice requirements under applicable law, if any, the Manager may terminate this Housing Contract and cancel the right of occupancy at any time for any reason, in the Manager’s sole discretion, including without limitation: non-payment of any Housing fees or other fees; health and safety reasons; violation of the Policies and Regulations (as defined below); failure to remain enrolled and in acceptable standing at the College; or other reasons of sound administration of the Manager.

Upon an event of default by the Student resulting in the early termination of this Housing Contract, the Manager may accelerate all amounts payable under this Housing Contract (subject to the Student’s refund rights for failure to remain enrolled in the College set forth above) and exercise any other right or remedy available to Manager in law or equity, in accordance with all applicable laws. Student shall pay to Manager all costs of collection incurred by Manager upon any event of default, including all reasonable attorneys’ fees and expenses.

Termination of Occupancy by the Student The Student may request termination of this Housing Contract by submitting a written request to the Manager or his/her designate. Said request will be processed and reviewed and the Housing Contract will only be terminated at the discretion of the Manager. In all instances, the burden of proof shall lie with the Student to demonstrate grounds for early termination.

Future Contracts after Termination of Occupancy Student is responsible for Housing Fee payment in full for the quarter in which the termination or removal occurs. All future Housing Contracts will be cancelled.

Removal from Housing Upon the Manager’s termination of the Housing Contract, the Student is required to immediately vacate the assigned room. Manager reserves all rights, both civil and criminal, against any person responsible for any forgery of the Guaranty.

Responsibility for Damage or Loss The Student’s signature on the Room Condition Report (RCR) establishes the Student’s acceptance of the condition of the living space and its contents at the time of initial occupancy, and therefore, becomes the standard for the condition of the living space and its contents at the termination of occupancy. The Student is responsible for submitting the completed form to the manager within 2 weeks of move-in. Change in apartment condition deemed as more than normal wear and tear by Manager will result in fees assessed to the Student.

No Manager Liability The Manager, Owner and College shall assume no responsibility for the theft, destruction, or loss of money, valuables, or other personal property belonging to, or in the custody of, the Student for any cause. The Student is encouraged to carry personal property insurance. Manager may enter each unit and bedroom, without the current Student being present, to conduct the pre-occupancy inspections and any re-inspections that may be necessary. If the apartment is found to be in an unacceptable condition, the Manager will attempt to contact the current Students to allow them to remedy the deficiency. If the Manager is not able to contact the current Student, the Manager may engage a cleaning company to clean the unit and charge the current Student for such costs.
