GREEN RIVER COLLEGE

Input to Date

Completed:

- Board of Trustees Retreat
- Steering Committee
- Executive and Administrative Retreats
- Seven Interviews with Key Communities of Interest

To Be Completed:

- One Interview
- Three Focus Groups – Internal, External, Students

GREEN RIVER COLLEGE

How would you define and measure success for this planning effort?

- Holistic, intersectional, inclusive, not culture-centric, covering all of campus
- Process fully transparent with clear communication, feedback loop
- A living, dynamic document that is actively used
- Clear, consistent, meaningful language, with agreed-upon definitions of diversity, equity and inclusion
- The full community understands the process, can provide input
- Everyone should see themselves in the Plan
- Student-centered, measurable, equity-based metrics that provide data and results demonstrating authentic improvement

GREEN RIVER COLLEGE

What are the greatest issues and challenges associated with developing the Strategic Plan?

- Engaging and informing everyone; ensuring that full student body is engaged
- Helping all feel safe to provide authentic input; variety of methods for a broad spectrum of voices
- Allowing opportunity to provide input as the plan is shaped, with feedback loop to show how input has been incorporated, maintaining momentum
- Balancing moving forward with acknowledging / addressing trust barriers from past
- Calling people in to conduct difficult conversations in a respectful and productive manner
- Prioritizing programs that are most viable to expand while considering impacts on others
- Responding to external pressures (COVID, socioeconomic, political)

GREEN RIVER COLLEGE

What are the key strengths and opportunities we can leverage in building the Plan?

- Strengths: The College's people; exciting programs, initiatives to scale up; well-resourced; successful reaccreditation; excellent data team
- Opportunities to:
 - Strengthen the College's identity
 - Build commitment to change, authentic dedication to equity and anti-racism
 - Build new programs to promote student achievement and success
 - Better align and connect with local K-12, business and industry to expand, strengthen pathways, pipelines and career opportunities for diverse students
 - Tap into the full variety of student voices
 - Respond to the historic moment: foreground equity and leverage ongoing work
 - Educate ourselves re. equity; create "brave spaces" for deep discussion to move forward in a way that includes all voices

GREEN RIVER COLLEGE

How can we further embed equity in the process and all aspects of our College?

- Start with evaluating status quo processes and policies
- Add a social equity lens to everything – how to operationalize equity and evaluate success
- Expand connection to diverse communities
- Partner inclusively with cultural communities, consider cultural factors affecting student enrollment and success
- Clarify gaps, reach out to all, empower participation, ask right questions to ensure all voices, identities, experiences considered in making decisions
- Make campus more welcoming; increase staff and faculty diversity

GREEN RIVER COLLEGE

How can we further embed equity in the process and all aspects of our College? (continued)

- Consider services, programs and curricula to close opportunity gaps and expand career options for students
- Ease navigation into and through GRC system; remove barriers and biases to create accessibility for all
- Expand pathways into college, proactively engage with diverse families to communicate opportunities
- Ensure that all students, faculty and staff have equitable support and resources
- Provide alternative modes and access to all programs and resources.

GREEN RIVER COLLEGE

GREEN RIVER COLLEGE EQUITY FRAMEWORK DISCUSSION

As part of the Equity Forum, participants will be asked to discuss and brainstorm specific ideas that will help foster equity at Green River College. Key to that discussion will be ideas for a definition of equity. The following draft definition has emerged from the discussion to date:

Every single person gets what they need at Green River College to be successful in meeting their educational goals

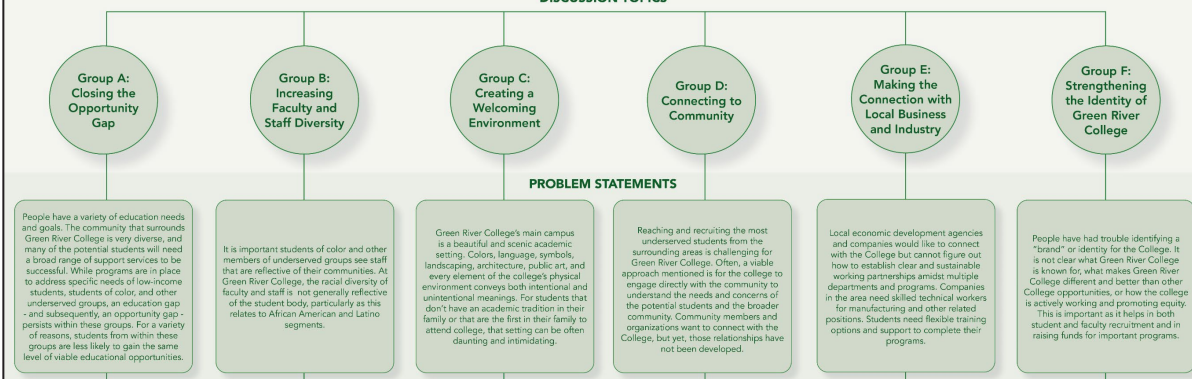

The following discussion categories represent key areas of opportunity to embed equity at Green River College. These categories have emerged through early feedback from discussion with the Board of Trustees, the Steering Committee, and through stakeholder interviews.

Participants will be divided into self-assigned small breakout groups. Each group will discuss one of the following six topics and will include a facilitator to manage the conversation and a recorder to capture notes and key ideas. Each group will be asked to complete the following tasks:

ACTIONS

- 1) Review and discuss the DRAFT definition of Equity for Green River College, and propose modifications/improvements.
- 2) Address the problem statement for the assigned group and identify specific actions, processes, policies, and programs to achieve the goal.
- 3) For each proposed action, identify how success would be measured and what metrics and tracking mechanisms would be used.
