By indicating below, I verify that this application packet for the Physical Therapist Assistant Program is accurate and is complete to the best of my knowledge. I at this moment authorize Green River College to perform criminal background checks, maintain the record(s) until I graduate or withdraw from the program, and share the information as requested by clinical sites. Any questionable things in my past can prevent me from completing clinical and therefore, without clinical I cannot complete this program. I understand that I may request a reasonable accommodation to meet the standards.

_____________ (Initial) I activated my Green River student email and will be checking it regularly.

_____ Check this box if you have previously applied to the PTA program within the past year

Additional documentation may be required for PTA Program students to participate in clinical, which is required for completion of the PTA program. Documentation may include but is not limited to: • Tuberculosis screening, verification of immunizations, and health insurance • Background Check, drug screen/test, and fingerprinting • Must be current Healthcare Provider BLS card certified by the American Heart Association • HIPAA Training (included in PTA coursework) and auto insurance

Accommodations Candidates for the Physical Therapy are required to certify that these standards have been provided to them. Applicants who need accommodations to meet standards may request accommodations. Eligibility for accommodations is identified through the Disability Support Services office. Additional information about requesting accommodation is available at greenriver.edu/DSS.
ESSENTIAL FUNCTIONS FOR THE PTA Becoming a physical therapist assistant requires the completion of an education program that is both intellectually and physically challenging. Each candidate in this Associate in Applied Science degree program should possess the following abilities and skills. The ability to meet these standards with or without reasonable accommodation does not guarantee employment upon graduation.

1. Demonstrate the ability to effectively articulate and interpret information to patients, family members, other health care professionals and third party payers as appropriate.

2. Recognize, interpret, and respond to the nonverbal behavior of self and others.

3. Demonstrate visual acuity and auditory ability to assess the condition of a patient and administer effective patient care.

4. Demonstrate manual dexterity, eye-hand coordination, fine and gross motor skills and physical ability to perform functions as directed by the physical therapist and following skills outlined in section three of the Evaluative Criteria for the Accreditation of Physical Therapist Assistant Education Programs (see Program Director for more information).

5. Work in stressful situations that require quick thinking, effective communication and the simultaneous coordination of a variety of activities.

6. Demonstrate physical agility to respond to patient and family needs, including unexpected changes in the patient’s status.

7. Demonstrate the physical ability to assist patients in ambulating, positioning in bed and transferring from the bed/mat, wheelchair, car, or other appropriate surfaces.

8. Demonstrate proper body mechanics for lifting.

9. Lift objects more than 100 pounds with assistance with frequent lifting and/or carrying objects weighing 50 pounds or more.

10. Tolerate prolonged standing, stooping, squatting, bending, pushing and pulling.

11. Demonstrate the ability to effectively and efficiently read, write, understand and speak English.

12. Demonstrate effective verbal and non-verbal communication skills with internal and external customers.

Graduates who are unable to perform these functions, with or without reasonable accommodations, may be unsafe and unsuccessful as a GRC PTA program student.

Please sign below and return it with the application packet. It is a required part of a complete application packet.

I understand the essential functions described above and I am able to meet these expected actions.

ESSAY: Complete a comprehensive essay outlining significant aspects of what is leading you to pursue an education in order to become a physical therapist assistant. You may choose to include information about your background, what has shaped your life, or any extenuating circumstances relative to your application, such as reasons for a low GPA during a particular quarter/semester. Please touch on the following points:

Academic Experience and Interests: Connect your academic experiences and interests to the program. You may also want to include personal qualities that make you a competitive candidate. Be sure to back up those statements with specific examples that illustrate your skills.

Extracurricular Experiences: Highlight any leadership or team roles, work experience, academic project, skills or experiences you have acquired (work, training, certification, research, internship) that are worth mentioning. Write about how those experiences have developed your skills and interests. Relate those experiences to your goals.

Career Goals: What do you see yourself doing once you are a physical therapist assistant.
