CLASS TYPE DEFINITION
As you view the class schedule, you’ll see classes are designated in one of three ways: virtual, hybrid/virtual, or online. The following definitions explain how each type of course will be delivered:

• VIRTUAL: Class will meet online at the time listed in the class schedule. For example, if your class begins at 9 a.m. in the class schedule, then it will begin at 9 a.m. on Zoom. You will be attending the class at the same time as your classmates, just as you would on campus.

• HYBRID/VIRTUAL: Part of the class will be held online without a set time to attend. The other part will occur at the time listed in a virtual format (e.g. Zoom).

• ONLINE: The entire class will be held online without a set time to attend. The class will still have assignment deadlines and due dates.

Payment is due upon registration. If you withdraw less than three business days before your first class, do not attend, or stop attending, you will not receive a refund. A full refund is given if the college cancels a class. Questions? Contact us at 253-333-6030.

Instructor Bio

Austin Gregory Ohm

Austin’s artistic journey has taken him from painting in his parent’s basement to community artist and educator. Each step along the way has taught him something important about understanding relationships between people and places. Austin believes creativity is a fundamental characteristic of human beings, and understanding our authentic creativity is an important part of living a fulfilling life. There may be no tool as powerful as art in changing the way people feel about themselves, others, and their environment. Austin currently lives in Seattle, WA, where he co-founded The Conservatory NW, an urban oasis for promoting wellbeing through the creative practices of Art, Yoga, and Gardening. He also joyfully teaches k-5 art classes at the Perkins School. Austin earned a BFA from the Peck School of the Arts - UW Milwaukee, Art Ed teaching certificate from UW Madison, and a MA in Creativity Studies from the Union Institute and University. Austin’s most recent body of work focuses on exploring themes of love.

Instructor Bio

Joyce Joneschiet
Joyce Joneschiet (Jonah-shite) has been working with seniors for over 10 years; first as an interior designer who started Encore Living Interiors in 2008 to provide a service that seemed to be missing for those seniors and baby boomers who want to age in place in their own home. Especially for those who want not only to have a safe home that assists in fall prevention but also is comfortable and beautiful at the same time. She saw the need to design spaces that could also accommodate the disabled and injured veterans with homes that could be enjoyed and bring dignity and pride into their environments.

"Whiskey and Wiretaps: The Northwest’s Rumrunning King" with author Steve Edmiston

On Thanksgiving Day, 1925, Roy Olmstead was trapped by federal prohibition agents and their Tommy guns on a lonely Puget Sound dock. His reign as the Northwest’s most prolific bootlegger had ended. But big questions—political, cultural, and legal--remained.

Using photographs, documents, newspapers, and court cases, Steve Edmiston breathes life into Olmstead’s story by exploring historical context, his entrepreneurial brilliance, his code of conduct, and the profound impact of his legal battles today.
